Keeping an Open Mind

New perspectives encourage growth. Working with different people can prompt different ideas and perspectives that lead to the accomplishment of a goal. This activity shows how listening to others and keeping an open mind contributes to the development of new ideas.
Keeping an Open Mind

THE SAME OLD THINKING

THE SAME OLD RESULTS

www.toastmasters.org
1. What Do You See?

Write it down.

Don’t share with anyone.
2. What Do You See?

Write it down.

Don’t share with anyone.
3. What Do You See?

Write it down.

Don’t share with anyone.
4. What Do You See?

Write it down.

Don’t share with anyone.
5. What Do You See?

Write it down.

Don’t share with anyone.
6. What Do You See?

Write it down.

Don’t share with anyone.
7. What Do You See?

Write it down.

Don’t share with anyone.
8. How Many?

Write it down.

Don’t share with anyone.
Describe a time when you benefited from listening to someone else’s perspective.

What happens when you are not open to other viewpoints?